

The vineyard of the Lord

m. G.C. Soli
trasc. a.p.

Capotasto al III

The vi - neyard of the Lord is the house of I - sra - el -

2

1. A vine from Egypt you trans - planted you drove away the nations and planted it
 2. Why have you broken down its walls so that every passer-by plucks - its fruits
 3. Once again, O Lord of hosts look down from heaven, and see
 4. Then we will no more withdraw from you; give us new life, and we will call upon your name

4

It put forth its foliage to the sea
 The boar from the forest lays it waste take care of this vine, and protect what your right hand has planted
 O Lord, God of hosts, re - - store us

½ CV

5

its shoots as far as the river and the beasts of the field feed u - pon it?
 the son of man whom you your - self shall made strong if your face shine upon us, then we shall be saved

CIII